

TORBURNLEA

HOMESTEAD

Torburnlea Homestead provides luxury accommodation in a 100-year-old farmhouse, providing “rest for the weary traveller”. The sensitively restored homestead, exuding generosity and grace, reflects her rich past and respected presence. With original hardwood floors, high ceilings and nostalgic sash windows, Torburnlea has many classic and contemporary attributes. It is located on the well-known HL Hall & Sons farming estate which is still privately owned by the Hall family who were among the first to settle permanently in the Lowveld. The heritage home is located within the secure Mataffin Macadamia Village, which is surrounded by orchards on the farm and is on the outskirts of Nelspruit, with easy access from the N4 highway.
